

Design A: fine exposure averaged over each support; people fixed across supports within a buffer. Point labels (G): support units with sampled adults.
The change from the default stations is split into exposure and sample parts in station_sets_decomposition_vs_default.csv.