

Filled bars: first-order (main-effect) share of each choice. Outlines: total share, adding every interaction that involves the choice.
Exact decomposition of the complete Design A grid; each chosen value weighs equally, so shares describe this grid of choices.